

Your Constitutional Rights: A Citizen's Guide

YOUR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS: What They Promise vs. What You Get

INTRODUCTION

The Constitution of Kenya (2010) is your contract with the government. It lists what the government must do for you and what rights you have. This guide shows you which parts of the Constitution are being violated.

KEY FINDINGS

- 0 constitutional articles were referenced in the audit
- 0 articles show evidence of violation
- 0 specific violations were documented

MOST VIOLATED RIGHTS

WHAT YOU CAN DO

1. KNOW YOUR RIGHTS: The Constitution belongs to you
2. DEMAND INFORMATION: Use Article 35 to request documents
3. REPORT VIOLATIONS: File complaints with EACC and KNCHR
4. PARTICIPATE: Attend county budget forums
5. ORGANIZE: Join with others to demand accountability

Remember: Sovereignty belongs to you (Article 1). Use it.

Generated from the People's Audit analysis

Date: December 30, 2025